

Creative approaches to writing in KS1 and KS2

Thursday 31st October 2019, 9am - 12:30pm, Ashmount School

On this course, experienced trainer and education writer, Rachel Clarke shares techniques and approaches to bring writing in KS1 and KS2 alive.

With children's literature at the core of this course, participants should expect to plan, draft and write their own texts based on those they have read.

During this course, Rachel explores different story structures, grammar in context, and writing for different purposes and audiences.

Who should attend?

This course is suitable for senior leaders, English subject leaders, SENCOs and classroom teachers.

Course content

- Extend understanding of narrative structure to include a range of models for creative writing
- Use children's literature as models for creative writing
- Undertake writing activities that can be replicated in the classroom

About the Trainer

Rachel Clarke works with education professionals to improve all aspects of English teaching in the Primary Years. During over 20 years in Primary Education, she has held the positions of: SENCO, English Subject Leader, Deputy Headteacher and local authority Literacy Adviser.

Rachel is a knowledgeable and motivational trainer who specialises in creating practical and active training sessions.

Rachel is the series editor and author of the popular Reading Detectives series published by Collins. She also writes regular articles for Teach Primary magazine and is an enthusiastic blogger. Her website www.primaryenglished.co.uk is a source of free guidance and resources and is visited

Ways to book

Click here to book a place

or

Email: jessefans@ashmount.leics.sch.uk

or Tel: 01509 632911

£60 (members)
£85 (non-members)