

Supporting writing in the Primary Classroom

Wednesday 25th September 2019, 12:30pm - 4:00pm, Ashmount School

Delivered by experienced trainer and education writer, Rachel Clarke, this course aims to improve the confidence of Teaching Assistants so that they can better support children with their writing.

Using high-quality children's books as models, this active course includes practical approaches to helping children with planning, drafting and editing their writing.

Who should attend?

This course is suitable for Teaching Assistants working in Primary Schools.

Course aims:

- Provide examples of creative approaches for supporting writing
- Build confidence and expertise in the teaching of writing
- Extend understanding of the technical language used in the teaching of writing

About the Trainer

Rachel Clarke works with education professionals to improve all aspects of English teaching in the Primary Years. During over 20 years in Primary Education, she has held the positions of: SENCO, English Subject Leader, Deputy Headteacher and local authority Literacy Adviser.

Rachel is a knowledgeable and motivational trainer who specialises in creating practical and active training sessions.

Rachel is the series editor and author of the popular Reading Detectives series published by Collins. She also writes regular articles for Teach Primary magazine and is an enthusiastic blogger. Her website www.primaryenglished.co.uk is a source of free guidance and resources and is visited daily by teachers looking for support and inspiration.

Ways to book

Click here to book a place

or

Email:

jessefans@ashmount.leics.sch.uk

Or Tel: 01509 632911

£60 (members)
£85 (non-members)