

Vibrant Vocabulary

Tuesday 11th June 2019, 9:00am – 12:30pm, Ashmount School, Loughborough

Rachel Clarke's vibrant vocabulary course provides teachers with practical, engaging strategies for teaching vocabulary in the primary school. Starting with research, this course secures vocabulary teaching in 'best practice' so that it is part of a rich language-based approach to teaching and learning.

During this course, Rachel shares high quality techniques to ensure all participants leave feeling confident in their ability to teach vocabulary skills robustly, actively and strategically.

Who should attend?

This course is suitable for senior leaders, English subject leaders, SENCOs and classroom teachers.

Course aims:

- Consider the place of vocabulary in the 2014 National Curriculum
- Familiarisation with research relating to vocabulary acquisition
- Consider how vocabulary is assessed in the end of key stage tests
- Explore ways to teach vocabulary systematically in the primary classroom
